

Where caregivers go.

notes

Ten Symptoms of Dementia

Following are 10 symptoms of dementia to watch for:

- Forgetfulness with effects at work
- Difficulties with familiar activities
- Language problems
- Problems with spatial and temporal orientation
- Impaired capacity of judgment
- Problems with abstract thinking
- Leaving things behind
- Mood swings and behavioral changes
- Personality changes
- Loss of initiative

For more information on these questions and what to expect, access the full article at: www.parentgiving.com/learn